Summer 2006

The Asian Pacific American Bar Association of Los Angeles County (APABA) is pleased to announce its Fellowship Award in the total amount of $5,000 awarded to one deserving law student during the 2005-2006 Academic Year.

Founded in 1998, APABA adopted the following multifaceted mission: 1) to establish a broad base of membership that is reflective of the ethnic and cultural diversity of the Asian/Pacific Islander American community in the greater Los Angeles area; 2) to provide a vehicle and forum for the unified expression of opinions and positions by the Association upon current social, political, economic, legal or other matters or events of concern to its members; 3) to foster the exchange of ideas and information amongst and between Association members and other members of the legal profession, the judiciary and the community; 4) to encourage and promote the professional growth of the members of the Association; 5) to provide an opportunity for fellowship among the Association's members; 6) to develop and encourage inter-cooperation with and between other bar organizations, especially other minority bar associations; and 7) to provide coordinated service to the community-at-large as well as the local APIA community.

The APABA Fellowship will be awarded to a law student who demonstrates leadership potential, maturity and responsibility, as well as a commitment to making a contribution to the Asian Pacific American community. The law student must find a position in a nonprofit organization or governmental organization and work substantially in a unit that serves the Asian Pacific American community in Los Angeles County for at least a 10 week period during the summer.
